Section 1 Corporate name, Registered Office, Purpose and Duration

Article 1

Corporate name,
Registered office

- 1 Under the Corporate name
Novartis AG
Novartis SA
Novartis Inc.
there exists a company limited by shares with its registered office in Basle.

Article 2

Purpose

- 1 Purpose of the Company is to hold interests in enterprises in the area of health care or nutrition. The Company may also hold interests in enterprises in the areas of biology, chemistry, physics, information technology or related areas.
- 2 The Company may acquire, mortgage, liquidate or sell real estate and intellectual property rights in Switzerland or abroad.
- 3 In pursuing its purpose, the Company strives to create sustainable value.

Article 3

Duration

- 1 The duration of the Company is unlimited.

Section 2 Share Capital

Article 4

Share capital

- 1 The share capital of the Company is CHF 1,318,811,500, fully paid-in and divided into 2,637,623,000 registered shares. Each share has a nominal value of CHF 0.50.
- 2 Upon resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders registered shares may be converted into bearer shares and reversed bearer shares may be converted into registered shares.

Article 5

Shareholders register and restrictions of registration, Nominees

- 1 The Company shall maintain a shareholders register showing the names, first names, domicile, address and nationality (in the case of legal entities the registered office) of the holders or usufructuaries of registered shares.
- 2 Upon request acquirers of registered shares are registered in the shareholders register as shareholders with the right to vote, provided that they declare explicitly to have acquired the registered shares in their own name and for their own account. Subject to the restrictions set forth in paragraph 6 of this article, no person or entity shall be registered with the right to vote for more than 2% of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. This restriction of registration also applies to persons who hold some or all of their shares through nominees pursuant to this article. All of the foregoing is subject to Article 685d paragraph 3 of the Swiss Code of Obligations.

- 3 The Board of Directors may register nominees with the right to vote in the share register to the extent of up to 0.5% of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. Registered shares held by a nominee that exceed this limit may be registered in the shareholders register if the nominee discloses the names, addresses and the number of shares of the persons for whose account it holds 0.5% or more of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. Nominees within the meaning of this provision are persons who do not explicitly declare in the request for registration to hold the shares for their own account and with whom the Board of Directors has entered into a corresponding agreement.
- 4 Corporate bodies and partnerships or other groups of persons or joint owners who are interrelated to one another through capital ownership, voting rights, uniform management or otherwise linked as well as individuals or corporate bodies and partnerships who act in concert to circumvent the regulations concerning the limitation of participation or the nominees (especially as syndicates), shall be treated as one single person or nominee within the meaning of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article.
- 5 After hearing the registered shareholder or nominee, the Board of Directors may cancel registrations with retroactive effect as of the date of registration if the registration was effected based on false information. The respective shareholder or nominee shall be informed immediately of the cancellation of the registration.
- 6 The Board of Directors shall specify the details and give the necessary orders concerning the adherence to the preceding regulations. In particular cases it may allow exemptions from the limitation for registration in the share register or the regulation concerning nominees. It may delegate its duties.
- 7 The limitation for registration in the share register provided for in this article shall also apply to shares acquired or subscribed by the exercise of subscription, option or conversion rights.

Article 6

Form of shares

- 1 Subject to paragraphs 2 and 4 respectively, the registered shares of the Company are issued as uncertificated securities (in terms of the Swiss Code of Obligations) and as book entry securities (in terms of the Book Entry Securities Act).
- 2 The Company may withdraw shares issued as book entry securities from the custodian system (Verwahrungssystem).

- 3 Provided that the shareholder is registered in the shareholders register, the shareholder may request from the Company a statement of his or her registered shares at any time.
- 4 The shareholder has no right to the printing and delivery of certificates. The Company may, however, print and deliver certificates (individual share certificates, certificates or global certificates) for shares at any time. The Company may, with the consent of the shareholder, cancel issued certificates that are returned to the Company.

Article 7

(cancelled)

Article 8

Exercise of rights

- 1 The shares are not divisible. The Company accepts only one representative per share.
- 2 The right to vote and the other rights associated with a registered share may only be exercised by a shareholder, usufructuary or nominee who is registered in the share register.

Resolutions,
Elections

Article 17

- 1 Unless the law requires otherwise, the General Meeting passes resolutions and elections with the absolute majority of the votes represented.
- 2 Resolutions and elections shall be taken either on a show of hands or by electronic voting, unless the General Meeting decides for, or the presiding officer orders, a secret ballot.
- 3 The presiding officer may at any time order to repeat an election or resolution taken on a show of hands with a secret ballot, if he doubts the results of the vote. In this case, the preceding election or resolution taken on a show of hands is deemed not to have taken place.
- 4 If no election has taken place at the first ballot and if there is more than one candidate, the presiding officer shall order a second ballot in which the relative majority shall be decisive.

Powers of General Meeting

Article 18

- 1 The following powers shall be vested exclusively in the General Meeting:
 - a) to adopt and amend the Articles of Incorporation;
 - b) to elect the members of the Board of Directors and the Auditors;
 - c) to approve the annual report and the consolidated financial statements;
 - d) to approve the annual financial statements and to decide on the allocation of profits shown on the balance sheet, in particular with regard to dividends;
 - e) to discharge the members of the Board of Directors;
 - f) to pass resolutions concerning all matters which by law or the Articles of Incorporation are reserved to the authority of the General Meeting.
- 2 The General Meeting holds a consultative vote on the Compensation System of Novartis. The vote takes place before every significant change to the Compensation System, but at least every third Annual General Meeting.

Special Quorum

Article 19

- 1 The approval of at least two-thirds of the votes represented is required for resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on:
 - a) an alteration of the purpose of the Company;
 - b) the creation of shares with increased voting powers;
 - c) an implementation of restrictions on the transfer of registered shares and the removal of such restrictions;
 - d) an authorised or conditional increase of the share capital;
 - e) an increase of the share capital out of equity, by contribution

- in kind, for the purpose of an acquisition of property and the grant of special rights;
- f) a restriction or suspension of rights of option to subscribe;
 - g) a change of location of the registered office of the Company;
 - h) the dissolution of the Company.

B. Board of Directors

Article 20

- Number of Directors 1 The Board of Directors shall consist of a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 16 members, all of which must be shareholders.

Article 21

- Term of office 1 The term of office for each member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed three years. A year within the meaning of this provision is the period between two Ordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The term of office shall be determined for each member at the occasion of its election. The several terms of office shall be co-ordinated such that in each year approximately one third of all members of the Board of Directors shall be subject to re-election or election.
- 2 In the case of replacement elections that occur during a term of office of a director, the successor shall assume the term of office of his predecessor. Members of the Board of Directors whose term of office has expired shall be re-eligible, subject to paragraph 3 hereinafter.
- 3 The members of the Board of Directors shall automatically retire after the expiry of the seventieth year of age; the retirement shall become effective on the date of the next Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting may, under special circumstances, grant an exception from this rule and may elect a member of the Board of Directors for further terms of office of no more than three years at a time.

Article 22

- Organisation of the Board,
Remuneration 1 The Board of Directors shall elect its Chairman and one or two Vice-Chairmen from among its members. It shall appoint a secretary who need not be a member of the Board of Directors.
- 2 The Board of Directors shall determine the remuneration of its members.

Article 23

- Convening of meetings 1 The Chairman shall convene meetings of the Board of Directors if and when the need arises or if a member so requires in writing.

Article 24

Resolutions

- 1 In order to pass resolutions, at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors must be present. This requirement shall not apply for resolutions of the Board of Directors providing for the confirmation of capital increases or for the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation in connection with increases of the share capital.
- 2 The adoption of resolutions by the Board of Directors requires a majority of the votes cast. The Chairman shall not have the deciding vote.
- 3 Resolutions may also be passed by telephone, or in writing or by way of electronic data transfer unless a member of the Board of Directors requests oral deliberation.

Article 25

Powers of the Board

- 1 The Board of Directors has in particular the following non-delegable and inalienable duties:
 - a) the ultimate direction of the business of the Company and to give the necessary directives;
 - b) the determination of the organisation of the Company;
 - c) the administration of accounting, financial control and financial planning;
 - d) the appointment and removal of the persons entrusted with the management and representation of the Company;
 - e) the ultimate supervision of the persons entrusted with the management of the Company, specifically in view of their compliance with the law, the Articles of Incorporation, regulations and directives;
 - f) the preparation of business reports and the Meetings of Shareholders and to carry out the resolutions adopted by the Meetings of Shareholders;
 - g) the notification of the court if liabilities exceed assets;
 - h) the adoption of resolutions concerning the increase of the share capital to the extent that such power is vested in the Board of Directors (Article 651 paragraph 4 CO), as well as resolutions concerning the confirmation of capital increases and respective amendments to the Articles of Incorporation;
 - i) the examination of the professional qualifications of qualified auditors.
- 2 In addition the Board of Directors can pass resolutions with respect to all matters which are not reserved to the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders by law or by these Articles of Incorporation.

- Article 26
- Delegation of powers
- 1 The Board of Directors may, subject to article 25 hereof, delegate the management of the Company in whole or in part to individual or several directors or to third persons (senior management) by virtue of promulgating regulations governing the internal organisation.

- Article 27
- Signature Power
- 1 The Board of Directors determines those of its members as well as those third persons who shall have signatory power for the Company and shall further determine the manner in which such persons may sign on behalf of the Company.

C. Auditors

- Article 28
- Term, Powers and Duties
- 1 The Auditors, who shall be elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders each year, shall have the powers and duties vested in them by law.

Section 4 Annual Financial Statements, Consolidated Financial Statements and Profit Allocation

- Article 29
- Fiscal year
- 1 The Board of Directors shall prepare for each fiscal year as of 31 December a business report consisting of the annual financial statements (including profit and loss statements, balance sheet and notes to the financial statements), the annual report and the consolidated financial statements.

- Article 30
- Allocation of profit shown on the balance sheet, Reserves
- 1 The allocation of the profit shown on the balance sheet shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders subject to the legal provisions. The Board of Directors shall submit to the General Meeting of Shareholders its proposals.
 - 2 In addition to statutory reserves additional reserves may be accrued.
 - 3 Dividends which have not been claimed within five years after the due date fall back to the Company and shall be allocated to the general reserves.

Section 5
